Sir:

REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION

Responsive to the Final Office action, applicant notes that the Terminal Disclaimer it filed on March 30, 2004 has been accepted. Favorable reconsideration and a Notice of Allowance are now requested based upon the following remarks.

With respect to prior-art-based rejections, the Examiner maintained her rejections of claims 26-44 and 46-53 under 35 U.S.C. § 102(a) based upon U.S. Patent No. 5,380,180 to Lamb, Sr. In addition, the Examiner maintained her § 102(b) rejections of: (1) claims 26-44 and 46-53 based upon U.S. Patent No. 3,718,536 to Downs et al. or U.S. Patent No. 4,812,283 to Farley et al. or GB 2004809; (2) claims 26-31, 33-36, 38-49 and 51-53 based upon U.S. Patent No. 5,096,945 to Sun; and (3) claims 26-47 based upon U.S. Patent No. 5,106,438 to Nopper et al. or U.S. Patent No. 4,978,489 to Radvan et al.

Applicant again acknowledges that each of the above-identified patents appears to disclose a composite material with apparently heat-responsive binder material. However, applicant disagrees that any of the composites described in the applied references show or suggest the invented thermoactive binder composite covered by the pending claims, which thermoactive binder composite exhibits the superior physical properties described in Exhibits A-D of the Rule 132 Declaration of William R. Reetz which applicant filed previously on May 22, 2003.

Nowhere in any of the applied references is there an identification of the following physical properties of the described composites: (1) thermatron thickness swell; (2) moisture response; (3) what are known as "ultimate" test values corresponding to bending strength (MOR) and bending stiffness (MOE); and (4) what is known as "fastener withdrawal numbers".

Because none of the applied references describes the above superior physical properties obtained in tests of product made according to the invention recited in the pending claims, applicant urges the Examiner to allow all pending claims. Accordingly, applicant respectfully requests favorable reconsideration and issuance of a Notice of Allowance.
